

Advisor Committee Member

Dr. Maria Theochari is the founder of Highgate Private School. She has studied English and Psychology, with both subjects having developed her personally and professionally.

For Dr. Maria, Highgate School is a path and a mission; she strongly believes in children and learning with them is a sheer joy. She closely partners with the staff members and promotes creativity and innovative thinking across the School.

After 35 years in Education, Dr. Maria Theochari still finds teaching exciting and fulfilling and continuously thrives for excellence in education.

Dr. Maria's has an extensive record of philanthropic work as well as community service.

Maria strongly believes and often refers to Eleanor Roosevelt's quote "The future belongs to those who believe in the beauty of their dreams".

At First Class Business Middle East she is a member of the Advisory Committee