

Managing Director, Business Development Manager

first class
business
together, developing winning businesses

Nadia Themis holds a bachelor in Business Management (U.K), her MBA in Corporate Law and her partly law degree. She has 18 years of experience in the international financial planning industry, where she advised many global companies to set their tax planning & corporate structure, as well as how to grow their businesses globally following her business development advices. One of her strong points is the ability to solve complex structural issues and get network.*

*Having the strong belief that it's all about human development and continual professional development, she partnered as the major shareholder with First Class Business. She trained and become approved trainer, and a professional personal coach by ICA. She is member of STEP, International Tax Association, International Law Association, co-founder of INFOACTION, president of HR & Development committee of INE, ICA, EMCC, BPW (Business Professional women) and founder of MELISELLI FOUNDATION (MF). She contributes part of her earnings for the support of MF. She also created @doersglobalclub for like-minded people globally, where they can share their experiences and empower the doers' community. Mrs. Nadia Themis provides her coaching services for high net worth individuals and corporate clients in: Financial Coaching, Network, Business Development, Communication Skills, Performance Coaching and How to be a doer and unleash your inner self!

She is also advisor and board of the directors in few non-profit organizations globally as BPW in Cyprus,HALC in New York, STEP in New York etc. She is very passionate in women empowerment and she mentors many young women entrepreneurs.