

Director of Training & Development Department

Dimitris Tolis, with a BA in Education, MSc in Computer Science and MBA from University of Sheffield UK, is an experienced Advisor and Senior Trainer (more than 18 years) in Face to Face Training, Blended Learning / e-Learning in many private and public organizations in Greece, Cyprus, Europe and Middle East. He is also a PMP (Certified Project Management Professional from PMI®), Certified Training Professional Tutor (ICDL) and has a Post Graduate Diploma in Professional Training and Development from NCFE, UK. He has experience in Instructional Design for Face to Face training programs, in designing training material for workshops, in designing and developing e-learning training material for Universities and Businesses and in designing innovative and gamified learning experiences in 3D Virtual Worlds.

At First Class Business Middle East he holds the position Director of Training & Development Department