

Human Resource consultant/ trainer

MBA, BA, PMP®, CBAP®, PMI-RMP®, retired Colonel with 24 years of experience in project management, leadership, management and business analysis. Experienced director – manager in numerous national and multinational headquarters in logistics, planning and training domains. He has been participating actively in training activities as a trainer for over 20 years in national military organizations and he was also a member of a Mobile Multinational Training Team of NATO providing operational planning training in countries outside NATO. He has held various managerial and executive positions in a number of multinational organizations in Europe in a variety of domains and diverse activities ranging from HR management, Training, Operational Analysis and Planning and Logistics. Utilizing his experience from similar training programs, he will not only deliver but also assist in creating the course material which will address your specific needs. His efforts will focus on ensuring that the participants gain not only an understanding of the various topics, but also change behaviors. The course will be practical allowing the participants to put in practice the taught material in a practical context.

At First Class Business Middle East he holds the position of Human Resource consultant/ trainer