

Education and Counseling Consultant

Nicosia-based Arlette Shohmelian's professional background is rooted in education and counselling. She holds an MA in Psychology from the University of Indianapolis, and is a licensed psychotherapist, parent, life purpose and career coach. She offers educational consulting to developing schools. She is a secondary team leader and her extensive experience in youth and parent coaching allows her to oversee the pastoral care at Highgate Private School in Cyprus. She also designs workshops, seminars and one-on-one counselling for students and parents, and the full range of her services can be found by visiting her website:

www.parent-tree.com.

At First Class Business Middle East she is a Educational and Counseling Consultant